

FUN & PHILOSOPHY

Life's most persistent and urgent question is, "What are you doing for others?"

– Martin Luther King, Jr.

Don't sleep too much. If you sleep three hours less each night for a year, you will have an extra month and a half to succeed in.

– Aristotle Onassis

Time and health are two precious assets that we don't recognize and appreciate until they have been depleted.

– Denis Waitley

It's only when we truly know and understand that we have a limited time on earth - and that we have no way of knowing when our time is up, we will then begin to live each day to the fullest, as if it was the only one we had.

– Elisabeth Kubler-Ross

Advice is like snow – the softer it falls, the longer it dwells upon, and the deeper it sinks into the mind.

– Samuel Taylor Coleridge

Be of service. Whether you make yourself available to a friend or co-worker, or you make time every month to do volunteer work, there is nothing that harvests more of a feeling of empowerment than being of service to someone in need.

– Gillian Anderson

Until the great mass of the people shall be filled with the sense of responsibility for each other's welfare, social justice can never be attained.

– Helen Keller

To consider persons and events and situations only in the light of their effect upon myself is to live on the doorstep of hell.

– Thomas Merton

What's another word for Thesaurus?

– Steven Wright

No man has a good enough memory to be a successful liar.

– Abraham Lincoln

Whenever you find yourself on the side of the majority, it is time to pause and reflect.

– Mark Twain

How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and strong. Because someday in your life you will have been all of these.

– George Washington Carver

Cartoon by Linda Windler.

That's my only goal. Surround myself with funny people, and make sure everyone has a good time and works hard.

– Joe Rogan

Science sent the Hubble telescope out into space, so it could capture light and the absence thereof, from the very beginning of time. And the telescope really did that. So now we know that there was once absolutely nothing, such a perfect nothing that there wasn't even nothing or once.

– Kurt Vonnegut

One of the funny things about the stock market is that every time one person buys, another sells, and both think they are astute.

– William Feather

One isn't necessarily born with courage, but one is born with potential. Without courage, we cannot practice any other virtue with consistency. We can't be kind, true, merciful, generous, or honest.

– Maya Angelou

Our prime purpose in this life is to help others. And if you can't help them, at least don't hurt them.

– Dalai Lama

It is health that is real wealth and not pieces of gold and silver.

– Mahatma Gandhi

The darkest places in hell are reserved for those who maintain their neutrality in times of moral crisis.

– Dante Alighieri

Freedom isn't free. It shouldn't be a bragging point that 'Oh, I don't get involved in politics,' as if that makes someone cleaner. No, that makes you derelict of duty in a republic. Liars and panderers in government would have a much harder time of it if so many people didn't insist on their right to remain ignorant and blindly agreeable.

– Bill Maher
