

Fun & Philosophy

Hate the sin and not the sinner, is a precept which, though easy enough to understand, is rarely practiced, and that is why the poison of hatred spreads in the world.

– Mohandas Gandhi

If there is in fact, a heaven and a hell, all we know for sure is that hell will be a viscosly overcrowded version of Phoenix.

– Hunter S. Thompson

Life is a little easier to understand this way.

Presidents and presidential assassins are like Las Vegas and Salt Lake City. Even though one city is all about sin and other is all about salvation, they are identical, one-dimensional company towns built up by the sheer will of true believers.

– Sarah Vowell

Being a politician is like being a football coach: You have to be smart enough to understand the game, but dumb enough to think it's important.

– Eugene McCarthy

Traffic signals in New York City are just rough guidelines.

– David Letterman

I played by the rules of politics as I found them.

– Richard M. Nixon

A magazine is simply a device to induce people to read advertising.

– James Collins

The second day of a diet is always easier. By the second day you are always off it.

– Jackie Gleason

I figure you have the same chance at winning the lottery whether you play or not.

– Fran Lebowitz

Americans have always been able to handle austerity and even adversity. Prosperity is what is doing us in.

– James Reston

Life improves slowly and goes wrong fast, and only catastrophe is clearly visible.

– Edward Teller

Man needs difficulties; they are necessary for health.

– Carl Jung

Politics, as a practice, whatever its professions, has always been the systematic organization of hatreds.

– Henry Adams

To be loved is to be fortunate, but to be hated is to achieve distinction.

– Mina Antrim

Even looking out the window you can't see where time has gone.

Life is truly known only to those who suffer, lose, endure adversity and stumble from defeat to defeat.

– Ryszard Kapuscinski

If you watch a game, it's fun. If you play at it, it's recreation. If you work at it, it's golf.

– Bob Hope

He who fights with monsters might take care lest he thereby become a monster. And if you gaze for long into an abyss, the abyss gazes also into you.

– Frederick Nietzsche

Choose as a guide one whom you will admire more when you see him act than when you hear him speak.

– Seneca

I represent to you all the sins you have never had the courage to commit.

– Oscar Wilde
