Fantastic doctrines (like Christianity or Islam or Marxism) require unanimity of belief. One dissenter casts doubt on the creed of millions. Thus the fear and the hate; thus the torture chamber, the iron stake, the gallows, the labor camp, the psychiatric ward.

– Edward Abbey

If you build every transaction and relationship in business and life with your behavior guided by the concepts of mutual benefit, fairness and truth, the profits will come.

– Mitch Throver

A nation that continues year after year to spend more money on military defense than on programs of social uplift is approaching spiritual death.

– Martin Luther King, Jr.

These heroes of finance are like beads on a string – when one slips off, all the rest follow.

– Henrik Ibsen

In today's regulatory environment, it's virtually impossible to violate rules. It's impossible for a violation to go undetected, certainly not for a considerable period of time.

– Bernard Madoff

The foolish and the dead alone never change their opinions.

– James Lowell

Quit, is just one word. Success, is a complete story.

– Arthur Tugman

The fool, fixed in his folly, may think he can turn the wheel on which he turns.

– T.S. Eliot

The question of common sense is always, "What is it good for?" A question which would abolish the rose and be answered triumphantly by the cabbage.

– James Lowell

People occasionally stumble over the truth, but most of them pick themselves up and hurry off as if nothing had happened.

– Winston Churchill

Are you a politician asking what your country can do for you or a Zealous one asking – what you can do for your country.

– Kahlil Gibran

Ultimately the bond of all companionship, whether in marriage or in friendship, is conversation.

– Oscar Wilde

Gratitude is not only the greatest of virtues, but the parent of all others.

– Cicero
